You All Know the Story on All Kinds of Wool Goods

Here is a pointer that all should know. A little later you won't be able to buy the kind of a Sweater that you would like to have. We will not have an assortment, neither will our neighbors. This applies to such goods as the Hoagknit Sweaters. If the government could get them, they would take them, but they are not made. Prices on what we have will not be advanced.

Dr. Denton's Sleeping Garments

Cold night are coming on. Buy Dr. Denton's Sleeping Garments for all children under 12 years of age.

Dr. Denton's do not cost any more than other night clothing. They are warmer and will wear longer. We have sold them for years, with increased sales every year.

Children with Dr. Denton's Sleeping Garments cannot catch cold. They cannot kick out while you are sleeping. One garment will please you so well you will want more.

Dr. Denton's comes in two styles, c10, open crotch; c15, drop seat. Small sizes of c10 are 65c; small sizes of c15 are 75c, running up to $1.00 in c10, largest size. Dr. Denton's are better than those made of outing flannel; they are heavier and much warmer.

Are you using New Idea Patterns? If not, you are surely not getting the Pattern that saves you materials and gives you best styles. Quantities of waist and suit manufacturers use these Patterns. Would they do so if there was more style or a better fit in other kinds? Think it over. No Pattern over 15c each.

Corset Sale

We dislike as much as you do to hear this, that all kinds of Corsets after Nov. 1 will take another advance.

This means that $1.00 Corsets won't be less than $1.25, and other grades in the same proportion.

If you have a Corset want, better try to buy before that time. Buy this week.

We are already paying more, but the price won't go up without giving you a chance to get in on the old price.

There is one thing to consider, and that is this: Corsets have not advanced in price one-half as much as other goods using materials of these kinds.

The hospital aid is distributing bags in preparation for its annual bag day, Oct. 25. It is asking for money, towels, tray cloths, old cotton and linen, canned goods and jellies, fruit of all kinds and fall vegetables, or, in fact, anything that can be used in the home. It has not been possible to distribute bags beyond the city limits, except in a few cases, but the ladies would gratefully receive contributions from those outside the city. Bring them to the hospital Thursday, Oct. 25.

The auction sale at F. R. Northrup's Saturday was well attended and was considered a big success. Eight grade cows sold from $44 to $126 and averaged $78; one two-year-old grade heifer, $93; one registered yearling Holstein bull, $110; one pair of steer calves, $65; brood sow and seven two-weeks-old pigs, $55; 21 hens, $135 each; 10 pullets, $165; 60 bushels of potatoes, $140 per bushel, all to one party; small stock of potatoes, 65c; about 40 bushels of eating apples, from $1.90 to $1.90 per bushel; cooking apples from 75c to $2.25 per bushel; 70 bushels of corn on the ear, $145 per bushel, 70 pounds to the bushel, to be weighed Nov. 1; seed corn, 20 ears to the trace, 45c per trace; hay, $9.00 per ton, to be measured; new oats, 70c per bushel. Mr. Northrup expressed himself as being much pleased with the sale, and the buyers got good property for their money. C. F. Smith, auctioneer.

Upward of $500 was realized by the 1st Vermont infantry band at the concert and dance given in the Springfield, Mass., Auditorium Friday evening under the auspices of the sons and daughters of Vermont who are living in Springfield. The Republican of that city has an interesting story of the affair. The money will be devoted to the purchase of instruments for the crack band which was recruited largely from Barre when the war broke out. Nearly 2,000 people were in attendance and in addition to a committee of Springfield people, Serg. Maj. Henry D. Rolfe, Max I. Krulke, the band leader, and Serg. James H. Best of the headquarters company, assisted in the arrangements. Of the leader The Republican says: "A corset solo was rendered by Max I. Krulke, leader, who is a musician to his finger tips, and so decidedly liked that he was called back for an encore." The Vermont band was a part of the organization of 180 military musicians which played at the football game between the Maine "Huskies" and the Harvard varsity informals in Boston Saturday.

The great thing to bear in mind is that when you buy a Liberty bond you are doing a truly patriotic act by assisting your government to save the lives of your fellow Americans. Let Barre live up to her reputation in the first Liberty loan and oversubscribe our apportionment.

An Excellent Recital.

A large and appreciative audience greeted Miss Isobel Gall Saturday afternoon at Howland hall, the occasion being her first appearance in public recital. Miss Gall's playing shows the result of much serious, thoughtful preparation—her technique is always adequate, her quality of tone exceptionally good and she commands a wide range of expressiveness unusual in so young a musician. Her manner is entirely modest and unassuming, and her charming personality won many new friends for her, as she received their congratulations at the close of the program. Miss Marion Anker gave two humorous readings, "Announcing the Engagement" and "Auntie Doleful's Philosophy," which received much applause.

Rogers Erickson played a Rubenstein "Romance" and the intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana" (Mascagni)—two numbers which were thoroughly enjoyed. Ronald Morgan added much to the success of the occasion by his sympathetic efficient work as accompanist.

Miss Gall and Mr. Morgan are pupils of Miss Bessie Spear, Mr. Erickson of Edwin Bruce.

The program: Violin solo, Mr. Erickson; prelude, Op. 3, No. 2 (Bachmannoff), (a) "An den Fruhlung" (Grieg), (b) "Eroik", Miss Gall; reading, Miss Anker; "Cavalleria" Caprice (Raff), Miss Gall; violin solo, Mr. Erickson; sonata, Op. 27, No. 2 (Beethoven); Adagio Sostenuto, Allegretto. Presto Agitato, Miss Gall; reading, Miss Anker; "Cantique d'Amour" (Liszt), Miss Gall.
